TEAMS SET TO BATTLE

CACTUS HANDED A LOSS

SECOND OHIO IS IN LEAD

Two Games Each Sunday at Rio Grande Park Is Decision of City Leaguers.

EXHIBITION PLAN FOR NEXT SUNDAY

TO have two baseball games at the Rio Grande park each Sunday with the double headers split seven innings each, was the decision reached at the City League baseball meeting held last night. In addition to having two contests each Sunday, the July 4 and Labor day dates will be filled with pastimes.

The Krazzjacks, counted on to bring a team into the fold, dropped out and the Western Dairy lunch qualified for the place. The first session of the season brings the International Bookers and the Purity Bakers together. Juan Gomez and his Mexican team will represent the book store, while the Purity aggregation, under the management of Sam Davis, will have practically the same team as played last year.

In the second game of the season, the Feldman and Weston clubs will meet. The Weston outfit is headed by W. H. Pelfrey, two times president of the City League, who promises to make a good showing for first money. The Feldmans will be piloted by Red Livingston, who had Everybody's team for two seasons past.

An effort is now being made to arrange a doubleheader exhibition for next Sunday at the Rio Grande park.

FIELD HOSPITAL LOSSES TO STEEL CITY TEAM, 11-9

Field hospital No. 2 defeated the Steel City team Tuesday afternoon in a hot baseball contest. The final score was 11 to 9. It was a tight game and the Steel City team battled hard to win from the Steel City team. A return engagement probably will be arranged.

Getting down to the reasons—the playing of Karl Pohlman for the Army League leaders, really featured last night's contest. The handsome forward just couldn't be stopped when he let loose with the ball, and when the scores figured the final results, Pohlman was credited with having punched the ticket for an even 25 points. On the other hand, the work of Demar Bowman for the Club crew was one reason why the Buckeye gang did not have a bigger margin in the score. Demar hung up 22 points single handed and his brother chipped in eight more.

But the big reason for the defeat of the Cactus Club last night was the lack of team work. The clubmen passed the ball until it made a million turns some times before they shot a basket. It didn't make much difference whether it went fore or aft, every move only served to bewilder the City League players.

Demar Bowman shot a couple of baskets of the overhand variety which were stellar shots, without question. But—the greater portion of the time he took too many chances from the center of the floor where one pass might have placed a player in position to have more.

WITH the league season scheduled to come to a close in a few days, probably the latter part of this week, the Second Ohio regimental basketball team is booked to take the pennant, hands down. It is a 100 to 1 shot that the undefeated leaders will not be bumped off the top seat even if the 13th Pennsylvania gang schedules two games this week with the champions. To date, neither the Pennsylvania outfit or any other team in the league has been able to force the Ohio squad to the limit.

The Second Ohio aggregation is running at 100 per cent speed, having won all of the eight games they participated in. The 13th Pennsylvanians to date have played nine games, two of which they lost. The only chance remaining for the "Dutchmen" to grab the high honors of the league is to play two games with the Buckeye leaders before the season closes, and cop both of them.

TALKING IT OVER

Your Views and Mine.

R OY BLISS, baseball player who handled the backstop position for the Las Cruces club when the Rio Grande league was flourishing, has contracted to play ball with the Salt Lake club this season. Roy, who is a brother of Jack Bliss, formerly catcher on the El Paso team, is prominently known here and has loads of friends who want to see him make good in the Utahberg.

The official bulletin of the National Association of Professional B. B. Leagues records the release of George Stovall by Toledo. Stovall will go to the Vernon, Calif., club, which has made a good offer for the old-timer. Stovall's release only reminds us of the old story:—No matter how good they are, there's a time when they go down hill.

Indoor sports: Trying to figure out why Ty Cobb wouldn't be popular in any state.

Every now and then you run across some rabid baseball fan who knows the history of practically every good ball player in the two major leagues, yet he doesn't know why Sam Crawford of the Detroit Tigers, is hailed as "Wahoo Sam." The best way to find out is to visit Wahoo, Nebraska, Sam's old home town. And if you do, you likely will find an old crone around the corner dry goods store who can give you a life history of Crawford. Invariably, the crone will point to a middle-aged man behind the counter of the store and remark, "See that fella there? He first showed Samuel Crawford how to club a ball." And then he'll go on to tell you how Sam was cross-handed when a youth.

Some day the Second Ohio basketball quintet will have anellofa time to get somebody to keep score for them.

There's likely to be a rumpus in North Carolina some of these days. See where the directors of the N. C. league declared the franchise and players of the Raleigh club forfeited to the league. The question will arise, will the players and owners of the franchise stand for it?

This bowling tournament is going to be a big thing for the El Paso pin topplers. And El Paso has some good bowlers when they can average 180 or better. That's pretty consistent work for fellows who don't make the game their business.

Just what Mexican Pete Everett means by challenging Battling Torrence for a bout here is more than we can understand. Torrence, scrapper Whitey Burns and weighed in at an even 150 pounds. Mexican Pete couldn't come within 20 pounds of that mark if he had to sweat off a pound a day.

Battling Martin is bound to be in front, whether it's at a movie show or a circus. His latest stunt is to bring around a pelican signed by 25 sport lovers who ask that he be matched to box Billy Wetzell. Martin battled the cavalryman to a draw some time ago and he thinks he can stop Wetzell if they are given a little lengthier contest.

Suppose when player Harrah lands in Rocky Mount to open the baseball season with the club there'll be a general "harrah" from the crowd. But then, there's really nothing to a name for Ben Tincoap hasn't signed for the Army League. He's going to Little Rock.

"No more for me."

Cried old man Flutz—

"No more, no more for me."

"I tried a million."

And it wouldn't go—

"No more, no more for me."

But Flutz isn't the only one with the "no more" cry. Every fan who saw Harry Beecher attempt to box here not long ago is practicing the same ditty on his phonograph.

If the wind keeps on blowing the ball players won't need any fungo stick for practice. But—they may need a come-back string on the baseball.

—but pleasing your taste isn't all

Not by a long shot! Because lots of cigarettes may please your taste—you've never expected a cigarette to do more than that.

But Chesterfields do something else besides please the taste—

Chesterfields just "touch the spot," they do what cigar smokers say a cigarette can't do—they "SATISFY"!

And yet, they're mild!

It's the Blend—that's the idea! That, together with the extra high-quality of the Imported and Domestic tobaccos. And the blend can't be copied.

If you want good taste in a cigarette, and then more than that: a cigarette that "satisfies"—try Chesterfields, today.
